Women's Creative Leadership Network

Member Profile Submission Form

The Women's Creative Leadership Network is a group of everyday women with an extraordinary passion for making the world a better place. To highlight the contributions of women to leadership, as well as approaches to leadership based on the Network's core values, The Fruition Coalition will create and publish one weekly profile of a member. If you would like to participate, send your responses to the following questions and a photo to utopia@fruitioncoalition.com or send a private Facebook message to the group administrator. Please provide as clear, specific details. You will have the opportunity to review your profile before it is published. By submitting this information to The Fruition Coalition, you are giving permission for your profile and photograph to be distributed through email, social media, websites, and other media.

1. What is your name?
2. Where do you live?
3. What kind of work do you do?
4. What is your experience with leadership?
5. Why did you decide to become a part of the Women's Creative Leadership Network?
6. This network is based on The Fruition Coalition's core values of optimism, love, justice, community, curiosity, wisdom, creativity, liberation, integrity, and sincerity so that women can collectively create leadership that results in more openness and understanding rather than in division and destruction. How do you integrate these values into your work?
7. Is there something interesting that you are working on now that you would like to share with the network?
8. Tell us something fun or personal about yourself. It could be a personal interest, hobby, something about your family, etc.
9. If there is anything else that you would like to include in your profile, please provide this information in your message.
